

Guidelines for the Office of International Exchange Program of the Central Police University

CPU #902403 on May 23, 2001

CPU #1060011510 modified on November 29, 2017

CPU #1090012514 Point#3 modified on December, 2020

- I. To promote international academic exchange, the Central Police University (CPU) has set up the Office of International Exchange Program based on Article 13 of the Organic Act of CPU.
- II. The Office is in charge of the following duties:
 1. Managing affairs of academic exchange with sister schools/universities overseas.
 2. Promoting the international academic exchange between other academic institutions and the CPU.
 3. Providing assistance to foreign students attending the CPU.
 4. Other relevant matters of international academic exchange.
- III. The Office consists of 5 to 7 members appointed by the president of CPU. Office members are members of school faculty with proficiency in foreign languages. One office member will be the convener handling office affairs.

At least one-third of the membership of the committee shall be persons of one particular gender.
- IV. The term of the Office members is two years, and the rights and obligations are in accordance with the regulations of school faculties serving as adjunct administrators.
- V. The Office has one secretary. The administrative staff will serve as the Office's secretary.